NIHR | National Institute for Health and Care Research

Mid-Career Researchers

Help us shape career development across Oxford NIHR infrastructure

Take part in a one-hour online facilitated discussion

Explore barriers and opportunities affecting career progression, visibility, and equitable access within Oxford NIHR research infrastructure.

Your insights will inform future capacity development, Research Inclusion and EDI plans.

Who?

Mid-career researchers working towards independence as research leaders, including those with small grants, are looking to apply for larger grant applications or joint Co-Chief Investigator roles.

- No PhD required
- Clinical, academic, and other research pathways welcome
- Open only to mid-career researchers supported by;
  - NIHR CRF: Oxford
  - NIHR CRF: Oxford Health
  - NIHR BRC: Oxford
  - NIHR BRC: Oxford Health

Facilitated by

Helen Walthall
ACD Lead, NIHR BRC: Oxford

Kate Saunders
Academic RCD Lead, NIHR BRC: Oxford Health

When?

Tuesday 17 November
11:00- 12:00 Online

Thursday 3 December
12:00–13:00, Online

REGISTER YOUR INTEREST

This engagement responds to findings from the Cross-Oxford NIHR Research Culture, EDI and Research Inclusion Survey 2025.